The Richard Grossman Student Support Scholarship is awarded to students registered at Southwestern Oregon Community College full or part-time who need assistance with temporary financial difficulties or emergencies. Preference is given to students with continuing financial need who are planning to earn degrees or certificates. The maximum amount that can be awarded is $250.

1. Please explain in detail what your financial emergency is and how a grant from the Richard Grossman Student Support Scholarship will help you.

2. How much money do you need to get through this emergency?

3. What other resources/agencies have you looked into for help with this emergency?

4. How will your attendance or performance at SWOCC be impacted if you do not receive financial help with this emergency?

5. List 2 teachers at SWOCC who know you well and/or are familiar with your circumstances.

Mail to the SWOCC Foundation, 1988 Newmark, Coos Bay, OR 97420 or deliver in person to Tioga Hall, Room 503.
