ART 0231 65 HISTORICAL PORTRAITS: DRAWING AND PAINTING
This a research driven, studio art class. You will explore drawing & painting, while diving into historical movements and events that have been captured on film since the existence of the camera. Students of all skill levels will review the effect early photography has had on art, and storytelling, in the infancy of cameras in the US. Much like early photographers, and the development of photo journalism, you will learn to find and tell a story with your work. This class requires a bit of research at our local libraries, The Coos History Museum (which has a vast collection of historical photos), and/or online resources. A few final pieces will be selected from each student for a showing at the Coos History Museum. Field Trips to The Coos History Museum and The Marshfield Sun Museum will be arranged. A supply list will be included in the syllabus and will not exceed $35. Instructor: Amy Pollicino

Distance Learning

www.socc.edu/distance

For more information on class times, fees and other questions, contact the Distance Learning Office at (541) 888-7465 or (800) 962-2838 Ext. 7465.

Online: Course offerings are provided over the Internet using the eLearning Learning Management System with instructors at Southwestern. Tests are either online or proctored at designated sites. Please contact your instructor for testing details.

eLearning is the Web-based software designed to deliver online learning. eLearning has a variety of teaching and learning tools totally online. You can find eLearning when you login to myLakerLink and look about half way down the left side.

myLakerLink is our student registration system. To register for or drop courses, use myLakerLink. See page 2 for more information.

Textbooks: If you are taking an online course taught by a Southwestern instructor, visit the Southwestern Bookstore in Stensland Hall on the Coos Bay campus or go online at www.socc.edu/bookstore. For more information call 541-888-7264, (800) 962-2838 Ext. 7264. Students in Curry County can order books online or at their local center.

Assistance: Southwestern has a variety of ways for you to be successful. Please make sure you are ready for this exciting and convenient way to learn.

1. Visit our web site www.socc.edu/distance/ for basic information on getting started.
2. Contact the Distance Learning Office at (541) 888-7465 or (800) 962-2838 Ext. 7465 for registration information about our no cost, online class “Introduction to Online Learning”.
3. An online student information booklet is located at www.socc.edu/distance/ under Student Resources.

Building Oregon’s best businesses in Coos, Curry and Western Douglas Counties:
• Free one-on-one business advising
• “GrowthWheel” business tool
• Affordable training
• Financial analysis
• Business planning assistance
• Referral services
• Market research
• Valuable, timely information

The Southwestern Small Business Development Center (SBDC) provides practical information and services for small business long-term profitability. We focus on assisting with the retention and expansion of established businesses on the South Coast. Additionally, we provide specialty services to both rapid growth businesses and start-ups. We are here to help you make your business a continuing success. Advising is available in person or online via our Zoom meeting room.

BUSINESS WORKSHOPS
Check out and register for upcoming training opportunities either online or local by going to www.socc.edu/sbdc or call 541-888-7026.

The Small Business Development Center Network offers many workshops on pertinent business topics, designed to sharpen your management skills. This is practical, results-oriented training that you can put to immediate use. Prices vary depending on format and sponsorships.

A Ready, Set, Start Your Business workshop is offered weekly in Coos Bay for those interested in learning more about starting a business. The cost of this 2-hour training is only $20. On the first Monday of each month the class is offered in Spanish!

WHAT’S YOUR PLAN?
The SBDC offers a 4-session business planning training that includes specialized business advising. What’s Your Plan? will be offered 4 times a year in Coos Bay and 3 times a year in Curry County. The Coos Bay classes are held at the Newmark Center and the Curry County classes are held at either Southwestern’s campus in Brookings or the Gold Beach center. The classroom training covers writing a business plan using LivePlan. The cost of this training is $125. To access this program register online at www.BizCenter.org or contact the Small Business Development Center.

SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT (SBM)
Southwestern’s SBDC is offering Small Business Management (SBM) training. Topics include financial management, online business, marketing, social media, human resources and much more. SBM consists of nine classroom training sessions, one-on-one business advising and small business management tools. Cost for this program is $500. To learn more visit www.BizCenter.org or call the Small Business Development Center.

BUSINESS ADVISING & ASSISTANCE
Existing business owners in Coos, Curry, and Western Douglas counties can access confidential business advising at no charge. Advising is tailored to your individual needs and is provided by business advisors (in English as well as in Spanish) on a wide variety of issues including marketing/sales, financing sources, record keeping/accounting, business planning, licensing, exporting, pricing, financial analysis and much more.

e-sbdc – A BUSINESS WEBSITE
Zap into the e-sbdc website for business information that is useful no matter what stage of business you are in. You will have choices of resources, online training, registering for an advising appointment and information about upcoming events. www.BizCenter.org offers you a multitude of resources that are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Access and use them any place and anytime.
