The Rocks Don’t Lie:
A Geologist Looks at Noah’s Flood
Saturday, May 16, 2015 at 7:00 pm

Dr. David R. Montgomery
University of Washington

Dr. Montgomery is the author of The Rocks Don’t Lie: A Geologist Investigates Noah’s Flood, Dirt: The Erosion of Civilizations and King of Fish: The Thousand-Year Run of Salmon. A MacArthur Fellow, three-time Winner of the Washington State Book Award, recipient of the NAGT Shea award for his writing, Dave is a professor of Earth and Space Sciences at the University of Washington. In Tibet, he discovered solid evidence for a great flood recorded in a local folktale. Intrigued, he began investigating the origins of other flood stories— including the story of Noah’s Flood.
