WHAT: Uniting communities through government resources and business solutions to grow local economies today for a stronger tomorrow.

WHEN: November 6, 2014 (times may vary, visit links below)

WHERE: Southwestern Oregon Community College - Brookings, Oregon

C2O is a collaborative effort by local, state, and federal government agencies to provide practical training on certification, contracting, as well as business finance programs to strengthen local communities.

C2O is designed to unite communities through government resources and business solutions to grow your community today for a stronger tomorrow.

---

Government Lending Programs
Lending solutions for local lenders

Government to Government Purchasing Training
Important cost savings available to local agencies

Vendor Training
Practical approach to government contracting

---

Oregon Department of Transportation
State of Oregon Department of Environmental Quality
Office of Minority, Women & Emerging Small Business”