"Death From Space"

... it could be a classic Hollywood B-Movie. Instead, join internationally recognized actor Michael James Scott as he stars in "Death From Space", a classic sci-fi comedy. The story begins when a group of the United States' most powerful military commanders arrive on the planet Zafar to investigate a mysterious signal that has been transmitted to Earth.

The Educare preschool classroom at the Family Center celebrated Chinese New Year with many cultural activities.

Bay Area Sunrise Rotary is hosting a fundraiser.

Funds raised will go towards local charities and service projects.

From Anna Marca and Michael Cole: Their oldest daughter Shellsea just acquired her driver's permit. The streets are not safe!

One of the benefits of attending SWOCC is the opportunity to participate in extracurricular activities and events. The College offers a wide range of clubs, sports teams, and organizations for students to become involved in. Whether students are interested in joining a club related to their major or simply want to socialize with others with similar interests, there are plenty of options available.
