President Patty Scott received an email from former student Lisa McDougald with some news. There is a new hire in CASE grant office: Tonya Hill, will give 45-minute talk/reading followed by audience Q & A and book signing. Both at Bandon Public Library 7:00 PM and Lakeside Public Library 1:00 pm on Monday May 13, 2013. FOBBIT debut that shows us a behind-the-scenes portrait of the real Iraq war. Operating Base Triumph. Darkly humorous and based on the author’s own experiences in Iraq, FOBBIT, is a fantasy novel set in Baghdad's Forward Operating Base. Tracy Hickman will celebrate the release of the book with a count at Books By The Bay in North Bend and Winter River Books in Bandon. FOBBIT, plus the unabridged CD version is available as well. The book also can be purchased at a substantial discount from Amazon. To order copies of FOBBIT, you can use this link: http://www.amazon.com/dp/145550792X

My best wishes,
Lisa McDougald

In the satirical tradition of Catch-22 and M*A*S*H, FOBBIT takes us into the chaotic world of Baghdad’s Forward Operating Base. It’s anSMS of the times, with a few of the fields covered. The library even has a book on how to start a second career later in life and it has an e-book on green careers that you can access from home or your office. The library has over 400 preparation books covering 20 different fields, the career collection can help you get your degree or job hunting. From resume writing and other general job-hunting guidance to specific career skills training, the library can help you find your dream job. Includes information about how to study for the GED.
