

Southwestern Oregon Community College

BP 2610 Presentation of Initial Collective Bargaining Proposals

Purpose

To define how collective bargaining proposals are presented to the Board of Education.

Statement

The Southwestern Oregon Community College Board of Education directs the college President to establish a Labor Negotiation Team. This team will report the status of all labor negotiations to the board.

Boards of Education are permitted under Oregon Public meeting law to meet in executive session to deliberate with persons designated by the college President to carry on labor negotiations (ORS 192.660(2)(d)).

The Board of Education directs the college President to enact administrative procedures that assure compliance with any legal requirements regarding the presentation to the Board of Education of initial proposals for collective bargaining.

References:

There are no Oregon statutory requirements related to the Board of Education under the Public Employee Collective Bargaining Act (PECBA). The statute uses the broader term “community colleges” when defining public employer for purposes of PECBA. Boards of Education are permitted under Oregon Public meeting law to meet in executive session to deliberate with persons designated by the Board of Education to carry on labor negotiations (ORS 192.660(2)(d)).
