

Southwestern Oregon Community College for Housing Residents

BP 3503 Missing Student Notification for Housing Residents

Purpose:

To establish procedures regarding notification of missing student housing residents.

Statement:

Housing residents will be determined missing if it is reported that a resident has changed their normal routine and failed to inform roommates, friends, faculty, or staff of the change.

The President or designee is authorized to enact procedures as appropriate and permitted by law regarding the notification of missing students who reside in on-campus housing facilities.
